

Nominate Muslim Contributors to British Society

The Islamic Human Rights Commission wishes to acknowledge Muslim professionals of all fields who have contributed to British Society

If you know would like to nominate someone for publication in the 8th volume of our British Muslims Expectations of the Government Project, please send the person's name, field of occupation, and any contact details available to:
contributors@ihrc.org

A Muslim presence has been visible in this country for over five centuries.
In the 19th and 20th centuries, the nation witnessed an influx of Muslim migration from around the world.
With time, British Muslims evolved into leading contributors of British Society, and IHRC has taken the initiative to document the contributions of leading figures of society.

From the Sciences to the Arts, Politics to Aid work in which British Muslims are involved, IHRC encourages you to nominate those you believe have served society and played a vital role towards contributing on all fronts.
