

AUTHOR EVENING

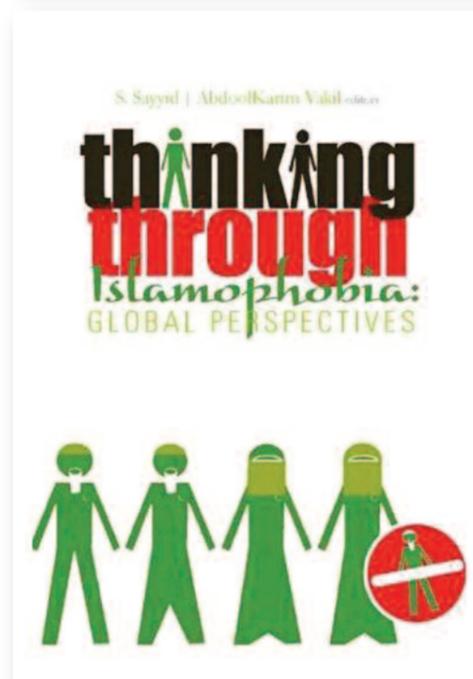

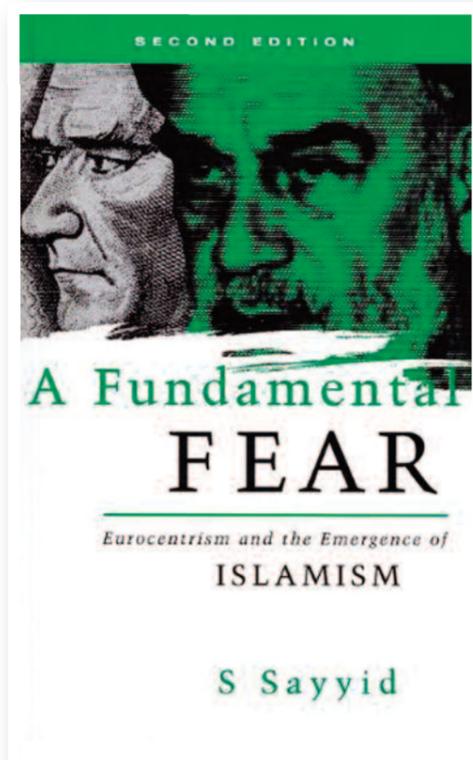

SALMAN SAYYID

An evening with Salman Sayyid talking about his books:
A Fundamental Fear & Thinking Through Islamophobia: Global Perspectives

Join us as we talk to Salman Sayyid and ask him questions about his books and his work as one of the leading writers and academics in his field. There will be a Q&A session as well as a book signing with light refreshments. The books will be available on the night for a 15% discount.

"A Fundamental Fear (Zed Books) is a provocative account of the ways in which Muslim identities have come to play an increasingly political role in recent years... Innovative, it shows how Islamic movements -- despite the wide variety of their manifestations -- are best understood as a continuation of political and cultural decolonization..."

'Islamophobia has become a dominant form of racist expression across the contemporary global North. Thinking Through Islamophobia provides an especially welcome, timely, and varied set of accounts about what the phenomenon covers, why the current upsurge, and how effectively to think about it.' -- David Theo Goldberg, author of The Threat of Race: Reflections on Racial Neoliberalism
