

AUTHOR EVENING

MUHSIN
KILBY

An evening with Muhsin Kilby – My Palestine - reminiscences and experiences of a photographer concerning Palestine

Renowned photographer Mushin (Jak) Kilby, joins us to talk about his travel and photography in Palestine.

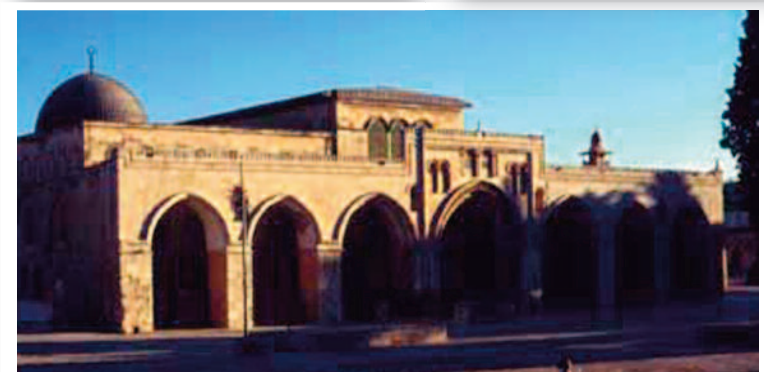

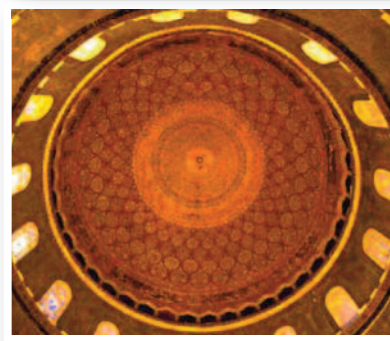

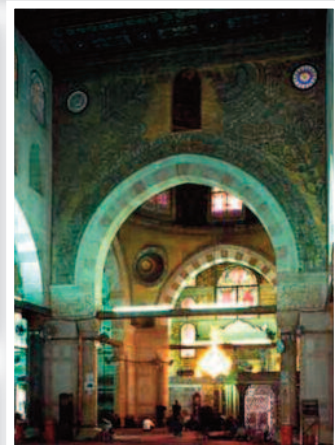

Examples of the iconic images he has taken – from the Dome of the Rock, Masjid Al-Aqsa, panoramas of Al-Quds (Jerusalem) to architectural details from the region will be on display as Kilby talks us through his travels and work in Palestine.

Some limited edition canvases of these photographs will be on-sale on the night or can be purchased on-line from the IHRC website www.ihrc.org.uk/catalog

Kilby's work has covered a varied spectrum of work including, Art, Theatre, Portraiture, Architecture, and News & Features reportage photography. He has also written in a variety of publications on Jazz, African Music, Jerusalem, and the Palestinian issue. He has travelled extensively in Africa (Algeria, Morocco, Niger, Tunisia, Nigeria, Benin, Togo, Ghana, Sudan, Egypt), as well as the USA & Canada, Israel & Palestine, Saudi Arabia, Malaysia, and western Europe.
