

My Hazara People - Shukria Rezaei

I can't write about my Hazara people Who have suffered for decades In Afghanistan where they come from In Pakistan where they are murdered
In Iran where they offend because of their almond shaped eyes
My mind is blank!

I can't write about how loud the shooting was Just two miles away from my house
How my aunt fainted How nervous my mom got how the cup fell from her hand

I can't write about how innocent people died how the Martyr's necropolis gets bigger and bigger how my people suffer how cruel this world can get how frightening it is for kids like me.
