

IHRC EXHIBITION

An evening with

Mamade Kadreebux

An evening with Mamade Kadreebux's Voyage to the Unknown.

Mamade Kadreebux renowned writer, painter and photographer will join IHRC for an exhibition of his striking images that he has captured of rare and wondrous places across the globe. Departing from his native Mauritius over 35 years ago, Mamade has since travelled all over the world. His work, born out of his travels has been exhibited around the world and has been used by international magazines such as The National Geographic. His writings and photographs stand as a testament to his extraordinary journey. Join us for an exclusive viewing on Friday 24 February 2012 and Thursday 8 March 2012 between 6.45pm – 8.45pm.

The exhibition will be available from February 2012 – May 2012
