Watch live on IHRC TV online at www.ihrc.tv and join us for a Q&A with Victoria Brittain discussing her new book 'Shadow lives: The Forgotten Women of the War on Terror' Wednesday 1 May 19:00 – 21:00 GMT + 1.

Shadow Lives reveals the unseen side of the '9/11 wars': their impact on the wives and families of men incarcerated in Guantanamo, or in prison or under house arrest in Britain and the US. Victoria Brittain shows how these families have been made socially invisible and a convenient scapegoat for the state in order to exercise arbitrary powers under the cover of the 'War on Terror'.

Victoria Brittain lived and worked as a journalist in Washington, Nairobi, Saigon, Algiers and London, and has travelled extensively in Africa and the Middle East. She worked at the Guardian for 20 years. She is author of Death of Dignity:

Angola's Civil War (1997), co-author of Moazzam Begg's Guantanamo memoir, Enemy Combatant (2006) and author and co-author of two verbatim plays including: The Meaning of Waiting.

You can take part in the Q&A via the IHRC Facebook page, Twitter @ihrc or @ihrcbookshop or by email media@ihrc.org.
