AUTHOR EVENING

with Salman Sayyid

Author Salman Sayyid will be in conversation to discuss his latest work 'Recalling the Caliphate' - a book that engages critically with the interaction between Islam and the global postcolonial world of politics.

Salman Sayyid is based at the University of Leeds, and has written widely on Islamophobia, including a co-edited volume 'Thinking Through Islamophobia'. His numerous publications explore the postcolonial condition and have been translated into a number of languages including Persian, Turkish and Arabic.
